CLOSE: 03/10/2003

POSITION VACANT: Survey Statistician, AD-1530-3. Annual salary ranges from $68,283 to $107,569

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION

LOCATION: Directorate for Social, Behavioral, and Economic Sciences, Division of Science Resources Statistics, Office of the Director, Arlington, VA.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: This position is that of a Senior Survey Statistician in the Office of the Division Director, Division of Science Resources Statistics (SRS), Directorate for Social, Behavioral and Economic Sciences. SRS has as its prime objective the development of factual and analytical information on science and engineering resources. This includes surveys and special studies on the education of scientists and engineers, the scientific and engineering workforce, and the financial and physical resources related to the U.S. research and development enterprise. SRS accomplishes its work through both in-house staff and contracts for surveys, methodological development, data dissemination and analytical activities.

The person selected for this position will be responsible for the following:

- Designing, planning, and managing special, one time or recurring major national surveys.
- Responsible for all operational and technical aspects of survey conduct, including survey and sample design, questionnaire design, statistical imputation, editing and coding, maintenance of data quality and development of data quality procedures, development of milestones, budgeting and cost tracking, project tracking procedures, state-of-the-art concepts and solutions to the quantitative and qualitative aspects of the complete survey process.
- Improving technical projects for assigned survey(s), such as innovative methods for improving response rates.
- Identifying appropriate techniques for addressing the problems or issues and for delivery of products on schedule and within budget.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in statistical survey methodology and/or statistical survey management, plus four or more years of experience managing statistical surveys.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

- Skill in managing large-scale statistical surveys.
- Knowledge of survey and statistical techniques sufficient to apply state-of-the-art survey methods, data collection techniques, and survey management
- Interpersonal skills sufficient to manage contractor operations, ability to handle sensitive situations regarding adequacy of contractor performance, and ability to coordinate with staff in other NSF offices or other agencies in securing and negotiating technical aspects of joint projects.
- Skill in planning, organizing and managing activities to oversee survey or other programs involving substantial resource commitments.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: * Your country of citizenship. * Your social security number. * Your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. * Your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. * If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. * The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.

Submit all application material to National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, 4201 Wilson Boulevard, Room 315, Arlington, VA 22230. Attn: Announcement Number E2003. In addition to the required application materials, you are asked to complete and submit the attached Applicant Survey form. Submission of this form is voluntary and will not affect your application for employment. The information is used for statistical purposes only. ALL FORMS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE CLOSING DATE OF THIS ANNOUNCEMENT. For additional information call Yvonne Woodward on (703) 292-4386.
